

woartblog
Amos Eno Gallery

woartblog "Tulu Bayar: Traces", is on view at Amos Eno gallery until June 13th, 2021. @tulubayar @amosenogallery Bayar's installation draws upon her decade-long exploration of drawing with photographic film, and utilizes meditative repetition to communicate the idea of oneness: all binary concepts share and are connected to one source. In contrast to an examination of the physical. Work on view focuses on the spiritual essence of wholeness and mysticism that are deeply rooted in Rumi's teachings.

"Traces" is composed of several mixed-media works meticulously created from photographic film, ink and

Liked by artspiel and 109 others

JUNE 1

Add a comment...

Post

More posts from woartblog

